

Having trouble accessing the latest information on a website where you KNOW the data is new? Here are some steps to CLEAR YOUR CACHE. Always refresh your browser often.

Clear Cache in Internet Explorer 6.0

Follow these steps below to clear the cache in Internet Explorer 6.0:

1. Click Tools - Internet Options
2. Select General Tab
3. Click the Settings Button under Temporary Internet Files grouping
4. Set Check for newer versions of stored pages to - Every Visit to the page.
More Details: Set Caching to Every Visit to the page
5. Click Ok
6. Delete all cookies by clicking Delete Cookies button in Temporary Internet Files grouping and Clicking Ok.
7. Delete all offline content by Clicking Delete Files Button under Temporary Internet Files grouping and Check ON checkbox for Delete all offline content and click Ok
8. Clear History by clicking the Clear History button under the History grouping.
9. Click Yes to the Are you sure question.
10. Click Ok

Clear Cache in Internet Explorer 7

Follow these steps below to clear the cache in Internet Explorer 7:

1. Click Tools - Internet Options.
2. Select General Tab.
3. Click the Settings button under Browsing History.
4. Set Check for newer versions of stored pages to "Every time I visit the webpage."
More Detail: Set Caching to Every Visit to the page
5. Click OK.
6. Click the Delete button under Browsing History.
7. Click the Delete All button.
8. Put a check in the checkbox "Also delete files and settings stored by add-ons."
9. Click the Yes button.
10. When it is finished, click OK.

Clear Cache in Safari

Follow these steps below to empty the cache in Safari:

1. Open Safari browser.
2. From the menu at the top click on Safari and then select Empty Cache.
3. Click Empty.

Clear Cache in Firefox 3.0

Follow these steps below to empty the cache in Firefox:

1. In Firefox, from the Tools menu, select Clear Private Data.
2. Make sure Cache is checked, and then click Clear Private Data Now.